

Ray Warco

Class "B" Commercial
Board Member

Ray Warco has been a resident of Hilton Head Island since 1988. He first visited the island in 1971, honeymooned here in 1975 and vacationed here twice before becoming a resident.

Ray was raised and educated in Pennsylvania, and subsequently lived and worked as a CPA in the Carolinas. While in Hilton Head, he has been active in various community activities, and continues with those endeavors after his retirement in 2019.

He and his wife have two grown children living on opposite coasts of the US and have two granddaughters. His primary physical activity is cycling and can be seen on the activity paths within Sea Pines as well as the pathways that cover the entire island.
